

Online Resources for Members

Maximize the Value of Membership

Welcome to the Geoprofessional Business Association (GBA)

This guide to GBA's online resources will help you get the most out of your GBA membership.

All of these and more can be found on the GBA website.

First, make sure you can login to the website; this is your key to everything you can do online as a member of GBA!

- ➔ If you're not in our database already, then click on the Sign up here link on that page, or the Register link in the home page login area.
- ➔ If we added you to our system, your username is your e-mail address, and your initial password is Password1, which you will change after you first login.
- ➔ If that doesn't work, click on Forgot Password? to see if we have you in our system and reset your password.

Tell others in your firm to sign up! All employees of Member Firms can have their own login for the GBA website. Use the resources in Promote GBA in Your Firm to help!
